Higher Surveying - Course

Land surveying is a relatively difficult and time-consuming task, so expect to pay between $350 and $500, if not more, if you choose to have your land professionally surveyed. If you don't want to pay for this, you can survey the land yourself. However, keep in mind that

Surveying and land

surveying is the
measurement and

mapping of our
surrounding

environment using
mathematics,

specialized technology
and equipment.

Surveyors measure just about anything on the land, in the sky or on the ocean bed. They

even measure polar ice-caps. Land surveyors

work in the office and
